Multiple narrators or shifting viewpoints can provide conflicting accounts, encouraging the reader to piece together the truth. Epistolary formats or documents within the narrative can serve as deceptions, especially when they are incomplete or biased. Meta-Fiction and Self-Reflexivity: Some novels explicitly draw attention to their own fictionality, challenging the reader's suspension of disbelief. Examples: Don Quixote as a parody of romantic chivalric tales, If on a winter's night a traveler by Italo Calvino, which involves the reader directly, Pale Fire by Vladimir Nabokov, a poem and commentary that manipulate narrative authority.
